Ipswich ERSA Sunday 20th June

Happy Fathers Day!

What would you rather be doing?

a. Have breakfast in bed, receive a card from your child/children maybe watch the World Cup?

Or

b. Get up really early on a Sunday morning, drive to Ipswich, get rained on, get sunburnt, watch some skiing and then go home?

Well thankfully, a number of fathers (and mothers) and of course those few adult racers that arrive un-encumbered arrived at Ipswich for a great days skiing.

The weather could have been nicer, especially for the starters at the top of the slope, they definitely felt the wind by the end of the third run.

With 129 racers most of the age categories were strongly contended. Vikings and Norfolk taking most of the spoils (13 out of 21 - 1st places), but it was down to Daniel Curtis from Brentwood Park to trailblaze with the fastest time of 12.27s.

Sam from town102fm very bravely let the Vikings have their team photo around the car!

As you may have heard Neil from Racer Ready was at the race taking photos of the racers. If you send Neil an email he will forward thumbnails over and you can then decide which ones to buy. His email is neil@racer-ready.co.uk

Wrapped up but still cold
