Tallington ERSA Sunday 18th July

For some it was a very long drive, but it was well worth the effort. Well done to Ian and all the other volunteers who helped make it enjoyable and finish really early. Considering I was up at 5am, getting home before 4.30pm was amazing!

Despite some dodgy commentary, the only glitches in the otherwise faultless running of the event were no flags, and unfortunately after the individuals no drag lift. At least the masters had plenty of time to walk up to the top before their team races!

We're now going to have a mini ERSA break until September, but in the meantime there are loads of events in the region;

July 24th Ed Drake Invitational

July 25th Hemel Grand Prix <http://www.britski.org/10hemelgpinv.pdf>

July 27th Atomic demo at Hemel

Hemel 26th-29th July

Ipswich 9th-13th August

4th & 5th September – All England champs at Norfolk

Lastly, thank you to Bernard Wright for some of the photos and both him and Neil at Racer Ready for posting the race reports almost immediately on the websites for ERSA and Racer Ready respectively.

Thanks to Bernie for the silly photo of the race
I don't think he needs the chocolates though!

Send me in a photo, I will frame it in the race report and give a prize of a box of chocolates.
