Notes: These are only recommendations.

The race itself is to be run and organised by the home club. The jobs indicated may be shared by different people if required. Number of people will depend on slope length and in some cases can be combined with other tasks. Fluorescent jackets will be provided by ERSA for officials on the hill. Radios will be distributed.

1. Chief of race is responsible for the smooth running of the event. Must be nominated from the home slope. Member of Jury
2. Referee/TD – to be allocated by ERSA. Will have casting vote. Member of Jury. One other person appointed as Jury member, not from same club as the other 2 jury members.
3. Finish marshal – responsible for safety at finish, also to arrange collection of bibs after the individual slalom.
4. Course leader – ideally from the home slope and is not racing.
5. Timing setup – the host slope is responsible for the setup and dismantling of ALL the timing gear including team events associated with the race on the hill. To include cables, start and finish gates and stands, slalom poles etc. Radios to be handed back to Chief of Race for return to ERSA. Actual timing box and computers will be sorted by ERSA. Chief of course to ensure sufficient slalom poles laid down side of slope for course setter plus spares for race.
6. Number of Gate judges to be allocated depending on slope. Ideally one gate judge to oversee no more than 4 gates. Flags to be used.
7. ERSA will manage actual results. Home slope to provide staff to record and manage computer. Explanation given by ERSA representative.
8. Bibs / registration – can be the same people, the more that help the easier and quicker the task.

ERSA will assist where appropriate and give advice if required. Otherwise all enquiries and requests on the day should be directed to the Home slope Chief of Race.
